Jamie Diamond, Series: I promise to be a good mother, © Jamie Diamond

Then she presents herself with a baby in her arms and in a variety of scenes. At first glance, there are intimate scenes children love, as we get it done every day by young mothers in mind. At second glance, we are horrified about the whereabouts of a sauna, swimming pool, a trampoline in the middle of the road. On the third we recognize that the baby is a doll. The scenes congeal into icons, nightmare images and parodies. In processing of autobiographical experiences Jamie Diamond shows the complex contradictions of the "true mother happiness", and places his finger in so many a wound.

Jamie Diamond, I promise to be a good mother, contemporary art appointment Berlin, Rudl Dutschke St. 26, 10969 Berlin, Mon, Sat 14:00-18:00 clock until 06/02/2012

A mother with a cute baby: in the train compartment, offering a mixture of snow-white bed, on the lake shore, the beach ... The artist Jamie Diamond though in her photo series, to be a good mother, but something is wrong here!

It is the first Solo exhibition of American artist Jamie Diamond in Germany. In the rooms of "contemporary art by appointment" of AJLART it presents a series of large high-quality photos.
